BRIEF MENTION.

Read the advertisement of Mr. G. M. Steifel, and give him a part of your patronage.

Persons having demands against the Town Council are requested to present the same by the 1st of August.

Mr. S. Bleckley and family have gone on their annual tour to the mountains, and will return in about a month.

The farmers of this County generally never had more promising crops at this season than at present. The cultivation has been thorough and the rains seasonable.

Mr. T. W. Martin, of Broadway township, has about 235 acres in cotton, and has the finest prospect of an abundant crop he ever had in his life at this season of the year.

Rev. James K. Pant and wife, of Sardis, Miss., who have been sojourning in their native State for several weeks, paid Anderson a visit of several days the present week.

Appointments of the Y. M. C. A. for next Sunday: To conduct the afternoon meeting, G. F. Tolly—Scripture, 1st Thes. 3d chap.; Poor House Committee, A. B. Towers, J. M. Hubbard.

Mr. B. C. Johnson, of Brushy Creek township, is announced in this issue for Clerk of Court, Wm. McGukin and M. P. Tribble for Treasurer and Jas. H. McConnell for Sheriff.

The finest corn and cotton in Anderson County is growing on the old fence row. If there is any one who doubts this statement let them take a trip through the country and see for themselves.

The Grand Division, Sons of Temperance, will convene in Columbia on next Wednesday, 28th instant. Excursion tickets will be sold at this place for $3.80, round trip. Anderson Division will be well represented.

The flash of a diamond that adorns the hand of a man is sure to attract the attention of a young man. If more than one ornament on the hand is visible it attracts. If only one it repels. How quick the world's ways are learned.

Hopewell Democratic Club will meet at Hopewell Spring on next Saturday, 24th instant, at 2 o'clock p. m. Addresses are expected from Messrs. E. B. Murray, E. M. Rucker and W. S. Dickens, and a full attendance of the members is requested.

Dr. W. G. Browne, of Atlanta, formerly of this place, is on a visit to relatives in our midst. He is well known to the people of Anderson County as an excellent dentist, and any one desiring his professional services can obtain them by calling on him at the Benson House.

We would give a word of warning to the parents of Anderson who allow their boys to frequent the depot at train time. When they are allowed such privileges they soon become reckless and daring, which often leads to some painful accident. Keep the boys away from the depot.

Rev. S. Lander, D. D., President of the Williamston Female College, lectured on education in the Methodist Church on last Friday night. His lecture was interesting throughout, and the "one study" and "private graduation" features of his College supported by able arguments.

We would direct attention to the card of R. A. Reid, M. D., which appears in this issue. Dr. Reid recently graduated in the Charleston Medical College, and now offers professional services to the people of Anderson and surrounding country. He is a gentleman of culture and ability, and will doubtless receive a liberal share of public patronage.

We are indebted to Mr. S. M. Crayton for a basket of very large Irish potatoes. They are decidedly the finest we have seen this year, if not the finest we ever saw raised in this County. There is no crop that makes a better return to the farmer or gardener, when properly cultivated, than Irish potatoes, and we would be pleased to see some one make an experiment in this section of raising them for market.

On the 8th inst. two little colored boys, children of Warren Sanders, on the plantation of Mr. G. S. Willford, of Rock Mills township, killed a rattlesnake four feet long, ten inches in circumference, and having ten rattles. The little fellows were only five and seven years of age, and killed the snake with a stick not exceeding two feet long. This was certainly a remarkable battle for such small boys, who were utterly unconscious of the danger they ran.

Mr. John E. Peoples has doubled his advertising space this week. He is determined that everybody in Anderson County shall know that he is selling one of the best gains made, and to prove this he presents a number of certificates from responsible gentlemen in this County, whose opinions are worth considering. He is also selling an excellent cotton press and portable engine, which he wishes those who desire to purchase to examine.

We know of nothing but the wind and moon that changes often than the schedule of the G. & C. R. R. True, the last change makes it a little better for passengers on the Blue Ridge Division going in the direction of Columbia, as the morning train now reaches Belton about an hour later, reducing the time for lying over at that place to three hours; but why can't there be some stability in the management of affairs? The morning train now reaches this place at 8.17 and leaves at 8.27.

The Greenville Enterprise and Mountaineer pays the following compliment to the INTELLIGENCER, which is highly appreciated: "E. B. Murray, Esq., editor of the Anderson INTELLIGENCER, was in the city last week. His paper is one of the best in the State. His editorials are prepared with ability, the local department well sustained, and the selections are not surpassed by those of any other paper coming to our office. The people of Anderson County have good reasons for taking pride in the INTELLIGENCER as one of their institutions."

We have received a circular from Hon. Hugh S. Thompson, State Superintendent of Education, announcing that a Normal Institute will be held in Spartanburg, beginning August 27, the exercises of which will be conducted by Prof. Louis Seelan, Principal of the State Normal School in St. Louis, Mo., who will be assisted by eminent instructors in different departments.

The course of study will include the branches usually taught in schools. Special instruction will be given in the most advanced methods of teaching and discipline. Tuition free, and all white teachers of public and of private schools are earnestly invited to avail themselves of the opportunity of improvement thus offered. Arrangements have been made with nearly all of the railroads in this State by which teachers attending the Institute can purchase round trip tickets at reduced prices. Board in Spartanburg can be obtained at from $12 to $20 per month.

Mr. J. H. Clarke, of this place, member of the firm of J. B. Clark & Sons, has been tendered a Supervising Agency of the Singer Sewing Machine Company for a large section of this State, but he has not yet fully determined whether he will accept the appointment or not, as its acceptance would necessitate his removal to Columbia, where his headquarters would be. Mr. Clarke has had considerable experience as agent for this machine, is thoroughly qualified for the office tendered him, and in securing his services this Company would be most fortunate.

Mr. James Kennedy, of New York, son-in-law of our townsman, Mr. P. Spellman, died here on Sunday evening last after a long illness from consumption. The deceased was a native of Ireland, but had been a citizen of the United States for more than twenty years. He came to our town in 1878, seeking to restore his failing health, and only a short while before his death was Revenue Storekeeper at Mr. B. B. Brazee's distillery. His remains were interred in the Catholic Church lot on Monday evening last.

Miss Louise Clarke, an intelligent and accomplished young lady from Selma, Ala., gave a reading and recitation in Masonic Hall on Monday night, which was attended by a small though appreciative audience. Her pieces were of both a serious and humorous character, and were presented in a faultless style. Her pronunciation was perfect, her articulation distinct, her gestures graceful, her voice sweet and well modulated, and her manner easy and attractive. Miss Clarke is an Alabamian by birth, is a lady of excellent character and of more than ordinary ability, and possesses in a marked degree the characteristics of the Southern lady. Those present at her entertainment Monday night were delighted.

Col. J. M. Thomson, of Marion, Ala., accompanied by his daughter, Miss Bettie, his sister, Mrs. Steele, and his niece, Miss Trimmer, who have been visiting relatives in Abbeville and Anderson Counties during the past week or two, spent four or five days of the past week in this place. The principal object of Col. Thomson's visit to South Carolina at this time was to deliver the Alumni Oration at the commencement of Erskine College, and which, on account of containing a complete history of this excellent institution of learning, together with worthy tributes to its fathers, is to be printed in pamphlet form for general distribution. He is a gentleman of fine abilities and extensive means, and is a descendant of two of the first settlers of this County—Peter Keys, Esq., being his grandfather on the side of his mother and Capt. James Thomson on the side of his father, Dr. Matthew Thomson. He has, consequently a very large family connection in this section. The entire party left Anderson on Tuesday evening, Col. Thomson going to the North, Miss Trimmer to Spartanburg and Mrs. Steele and Miss Thomson to Wallhalla.

The fourth annual meeting of the Saluda Baptist Sunday School Institute, held at Honea Path last week, was decidedly the best that has ever been held since its organization. The preaching of the occasion, which was done by Revs. Charles Manly, D. D., of Greenville, Luther Broadbent, of Newberry, I. W. Wingo, of Pendleton, and T. P. Bell and W. H. Strickland, of Anderson, was all very fine, while the discussions had on the various topics chosen were edifying and instructive, particularly to Sunday School workers. The attendance was very large throughout, and the best of order was preserved. The good people of Honea Path and surrounding country received the delegates and visitors most cordially, and entertained them with that liberal and generous hospitality for which they have long been noted. The reports from the various schools composing the Institute were very encouraging, and showed a marked progression in the work. New schools are being organized, the average attendance is better, the contributions to Missions, etc., larger, and in every particular the cause is making advances. The organization is doing a noble work for Christianity, and deserves the earnest and cordial support of all Christians. The next meeting will be held at Pendleton.

Another Victim of Whiskey.

On Tuesday evening last Mr. Major Crawford was returning home from this place intoxicated he met with a fearful death by falling from the trellising over Rocky River. He was seen by two colored boys, who say he was running as if afraid the train was coming, and when he got near the far end of the trellis seemed to sit down. They went towards him and found he had fallen to the top of the stone pier, some twenty-five feet below the track and about twenty feet above the water. Here the suffering man remained until the boys could inform their mother and convey the news to this place, a distance of some two miles. A party was at once started to the scene of the accident and brought Mr. Crawford to Anderson, where physicians were summoned but could afford no relief. His left leg was broken below the knee and his head terribly contused. He suffered intense agony until death came at about 8 o'clock on Wednesday morning. He was about forty-eight years old, and an industrious man, without means except his own labor. He leaves a wife and five little children in a very helpless condition. They have the sympathy of the community in their terrible calamity. This is another lesson to men who use spirituous liquor, showing the unlooked-for and fearful end which it sometimes occasions.

Mr. Edmon: I saw my name presented in your issue of the week before last for Independent of the Town. I fully intended in the very next issue to decline the nomination, but overlooked it. I do so now, and hope some one else may be found who could serve as acceptably and whom it would better suit to hold the office.

Williamston.

The following resolution, which was adopted by the Williamston Democratic Club at their meeting on Saturday last, will give you an idea of what is doing on this side in the line of politics. Up to this time the farmers have given their almost undivided attention to their crops, but since rain has fallen and the prospects for a good crop are brightening, they are beginning to turn their attention somewhat to politics, and things are getting lively. This is the resolution adopted: Whereas, it is highly important for the preservation of the harmony of the club to make the issue as soon as practicable between the two candidates in this club for the House of Representatives, by it Resolved, That this club will decide by ballot at its next regular meeting which of the two shall be put forward as the nominee of this club for said position. These two candidates alluded to—Capt. H. M. Prince and Dr. H. I. Epling—will abide by the result of this contest. If the friends of the respective candidates work for them, we may not expect things to be otherwise than exceedingly lively. Prince proposed to Epling, some time ago, to take it Vance and Settle fashion—go round together to see their friends in this campaign; but since the club has taken this action there will be no necessity for it. One would infer from a motion made and carried to meet at 10 o'clock a. m. instead of two p. m., the regular hour for meeting, that the friends of these gentlemen want to make a final settlement of the matter, and by beginning early have plenty time for business. It would be well for the members of the club to bear this in mind, and be on hand precisely at 10 o'clock. Col. Mattison, our popular ex-Representative, after spending several days in our town, left on Saturday, much improved in health. His many friends here regretted to see him leave. The Lone Star B. B. Club of Williamston will play a match game with the Slabtown Club next Saturday at 9 o'clock a. m. I think the game will be played at Slabtown. Our boys have no hope of success, but will play in order to learn more of the game.

KILGIL.

A Sketch of Rev. Thomas Dawson.

Died, at Pendleton, S. C., on Tuesday, June 29th, 1880, at 9 o'clock a. m., Rev. Thomas Dawson, aged 90 years, 3 months and 25 days.

Thomas Dawson, son of Joseph and Eliza Dawson, was born on the 4th of March A. D. 1790, at Lyme Regis, Dorset County, England. At the age of 8 years he was sent to school at Wellington, where he stayed three years, and then went to Mr. Paul, in Castle Cary. After leaving this school he was apprenticed to his grandfather and uncle, who were linen drapers in Makhstone, Kent. His grandfather and father were "Freedmen"—a distinction entitling them to vote at elections—and his object in being apprenticed was to attain that privilege for himself, but his grandfather dying before the expiration of the apprenticeship, he did not acquire the right. He then, at the age of eighteen, went to London, and served as a clerk in a large dry goods store for three years; then went into business on his account as a dry goods merchant, but was unsuccessful. So, failing in this, he entered the British Army, 4th regiment of foot, and was a Lieutenant at the time of the battle of Waterloo, but was not at the battle, having been detailed as a recruiting officer in England. After this battle the British Army was reduced, and Lieut. Dawson was placed on the retired list at half pay, which pay he continued to receive for a considerable time after he came to America.

On leaving the Army he returned to London in order to learn the Lancasterian system of teaching; after acquiring which he went to Boston, in England, and taught school. Whilst there he made application to William Lodge, A. F. M., to be made a Mason, but having decided to come to America, and the vessel on which he had engaged his passage being ready to sail, his application was never acted upon.

He sailed from Liverpool early in the year 1818, and arrived in New York, whence he went to Philadelphia, and thence to Georgetown, District of Columbia, at which place there was being held a triennial convention of Baptists, and he was, with the Rev. Humphrey Poey, appointed by that Convention to teach the Indians in Western North Carolina, which appointment was with the sanction of James Monroe, the President of the United States.

Mr. Dawson arrived in Hiwassee river in February, 1819, and was engaged in teaching the Cherokee and Creek Indians for three or four years. Here he married Miss Mary Lewis, from New Jersey, who was also a teacher, and whom he had previously met in Philadelphia.

In 1823 he left Hiwassee, moved to Pendleton District, in South Carolina, and settled on Fuller's Creek, near Perkins' Creek Baptist Church. He was then (1824) ordained as a Minister and preached not only to this Church, but all through the mountainous part of Pendleton District.

He afterwards bought a plantation on Martin's Creek, now known as the Harper tanyard place. Whilst residing here, he attached himself to Siliath Church and then to the Pendleton Baptist Church, at which latter place his membership remained to his death.

From Martin's Creek he removed to Barnwell District, and preached most of the time as a Missionary in Barnwell, Colleton, Santee and the upper portion of Charleston District. Whilst residing at Barnwell he made application to Georgia Lodge No. 71, A. F. M., at Ridgeville, and the degrees of Masonry were conferred upon him by that Lodge. He was made a R. A. M. by Union Chapter No. 2, in Charleston, and had the Council degrees conferred upon him by A. G. Mackey, in Orangeburg.

Mr. Dawson was subsequently employed by the Charleston Association to preach to the negroes on Edisto Island, where he remained until the Confederate War broke out, when he was compelled to leave, removing to George's Station on the S. C. R. R., where he remained one year, and thence went to Orangeburg.

At the close of the War he removed to Pendleton Village, and affiliated with Pendleton Lodge No. 34, A. F. M., April 15th, 1867.

His funeral services were conducted in the Pendleton Baptist Church by the Rev. Mr. Hutto, of the M. E. Church, on the 30th of June, 1880. After the services in the Church he was buried by Pendleton Lodge No. 34, A. F. M., and other brethren, with the usual Masonic honors.

W. H. D. GALLIARD.
